

 United States Navy
Biography →

SENIOR CHIEF SONAR TECHNICIAN (GEOGRAPHIC)
DAVID HAFOKA
USS KANSAS CITY (LCS 22)

Senior Chief Sonar Technician Geographic David Hafoka is a native of Sacramento, California. He currently serves aboard USS Kansas City (LCS 22) as the Maintenance, Material, Management Coordinator (3MC) and is responsible for ensuring proper maintenance is conducted on all shipboard operational systems to sustain mission readiness.

His previous sea commands include USS Pinckney (DDG 91) as the Weapons Department Leading Chief Petty Officer and Surface Ship ASW Specialist, USS Chung-Hoon (DDG-93) as AN-SQQ-89(V)15 Journeyman and USS Elliot (DD 967) as lead AN-SQS-53C Technician and Sonar Supervisor.

His Shore tours include Afloat Training Group San Diego as USW Team Lead and Fleet Anti-Submarine Warfare Training Center as the Course Supervisor for AN/SQQ-89(V)15 Operator, Maintenance and Journeyman courses of instruction.

