

USS CHOSIN WELCOME ABOARD QUESTIONNAIRE

1. Are you new to San Diego or transferring from a local command?
2. Are you familiar with our command?
3. Do you have internet access? If yes, check out base specific information at www.militaryinstallations.dod.mil. If you'll need internet access when you arrive in San Diego, you can utilize the base Liberty Center, the USO at San Diego International Airport, or the Fleet and Family Support Center (FFSC).
4. When and how do you plan to begin your travel to our command?
5. When do you plan to arrive? If arriving by air, do you need transportation from the airport? If arriving by car, when and where can we meet?
6. What is your current address and phone numbers including your cell phone? Will you have a different contact information during your leave/travel period?
7. Have you made reservations at the Navy Lodge or a local hotel?
8. Do you need information on housing? Are you aware of www.militaryhomestoday.com for information on military housing?
9. Are you bringing a vehicle? Here is the website for CA's dmv. www.dmv.ca.gov/portal/
10. Do you need information on TRICARE or TRICARE FAMILY DENTAL program? Don't forget to register in your new region with your updated address by calling (877)988-WEST.
11. Do you need help setting up your move? You can start the process at www.move.mil. Are you aware of the entitlements and pay you'll receive, including your potential eligibility for Dislocation Allowance? If no, contact FFSC for information.
12. Are you married? Does your spouse need information about the FFSC Family Employment Readiness/Career Center, or the FFSC Spouse Readiness Workshop to learn about military and community resources?
13. If single/moving without dependents, how can I assist you in the relocation process?

14. Do you have children? Check out www.greatschools.org for all schools in San Diego, along with test scores and parent evaluations.
15. Are you required to have a Family Care Plan? If so, remember you have 60 days after checking into the new command to file an update plan.
16. Do you have our Command Ombudsman contact information?
17. Are you in the Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP)?
18. Are you familiar with what activities San Diego has to offer? Check out <https://sandiego.navylifesw.com>
19. Do you have any questions for me?