QUESTIONS:

1. FOREIGN AFFECTIIONS:

A foreign affection applies when you or an immediate family member is a citizen of a country other than the U.S. This includes yourself or immediate family members who may be U.S. citizens but also claim citizenship in one or more other countries. Immediate family members include a spouse, parent, sibling, child, cohabitant, step-parents, half- and step-siblings, and step-children.

YES: you must complete Template 1 – Foreign Affections if you can answer YES to any part of this question. Each foreign affection must be listed on a separate template; do not list multiple foreign affections on the same template.

NO: only if you can answer NO to Question 1 in its entirety. Do not complete a PSQ Template for No answers.

2. FOREIGN ASSOCIATES:

A foreign associate is a person whom you, your spouse, or cohabitant socialize with OUTSIDE of the performance of official U.S. Government business where you, your spouse, or cohabitant have personal continued, frequent and/or ongoing communications (including foreign social media contacts, internet contacts, and/or the exchange of personal information), who is known NOT to be a citizen of the U.S. or known to be a dual citizen claiming citizenship to one or more countries including the U.S.

FOREIGN ASSETS:

Foreign assets are bank accounts, investments, holdings, businesses, finances, real estate, or any other financial interest or assets associated with or conducted in a country other than the U.S.

YES: you must complete Template 2 – Foreign Associates if you can answer YES to any part of this 2-part question. Each foreign associate/asset must be listed on a separate template; do not list multiple foreign affections/assets on the same template.

NO: only if you can answer NO to Question 2 in its entirety. Do not complete a PSQ Template for No answers.

3. OTHER THAN OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT FOREIGN TRAVEL:

Since your last investigation/PR deferment date into CE, list foreign travel not related to U.S. government business outside the borders of the U.S. and its territories that was done for personal or company business, volunteer, education, tourism, visiting family/friends, trade shows, conferences, seminars, etc. This includes visits to foreign embassies within the U.S. and abroad. Travel funded by the U.S. Government either directly or billable to a U.S. Government contract is considered official government foreign travel. Foreign travel for business development must be reported unless the company has specifically been directed to travel on behalf of the U.S. Government. Provide information in remarks section as to whom you visited (foreign national, EXPAT, Active Duty military assigned abroad, etc.). Completing this PSQ template does not alleviate your responsibility to report foreign travel to your security manager.

YES: you must complete Template 3 – Foreign Travel if you have conducted foreign travel since your last investigation/PR deferment date into CE. Each foreign travel trip must be listed on a separate template; one trip with multiple destinations should be listed on one template.

NO: only if you can answer NO to Question 3 in its entirety. Do not complete a PSQ Template for No answers.

4. PERSONAL CONDUCT:

Personal conduct refers to reporting information which may have an impact on clearance eligibility or suitability. Reporting requirements include all suspensions, denials, revocations, and arrests regardless of outcome (charged, charges dropped, withdrawn, etc.), since your last investigation/PR deferment date into CE.

YES: you must complete Template 4 – Personal Conduct if you can answer YES to any part of this question.

Only one personal conduct report per template.

NO: only if you can answer NO to Question 4 in its entirety. Do not complete a PSQ Template for No answers.

5. FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY:

Financial responsibility refers to the timely payment of financial obligations. Bills referred to collection agencies, garnished wages, tax liens, bankruptcies, lawsuits, judgements, etc., since your last investigation/PR deferment date into CE must be reported.

YES: you must complete Template 5 – Financial Responsibility if you can answer YES to any part of this question. Each financial responsibility report must be listed on a separate template; do not list multiple on the same template.

NO: only if you can answer NO to Question 5 in its entirety. Do not complete a PSQ Template for No answers.

When you have fully completed, sign (ink or digitally) and date the form.
