About the Ship's Coat of Arms:

The Shield:

The shield is Azure (Dark blue), showing an anchor Argent combined with a trident head Or, debruised by a chevron rompu reversed Gules fimbriated of the third, charged with four artillery shells of the like and surmounted by a mullet reversed of the last bearing a lion passant guardant Gules. Dark blue and gold are the colors traditionally used by the Navy and represent the sea and excellence. The combined anchor and trident, symbols of sea prowess exemplify and are symbolic of hope and steadfastness to our past naval history and its evolvement into a more modern warfare platform indicative of DDG 86's Aegis and Vertical Launch Systems. Each time of the trident depicts separate warfare areas: air, surface and sub-surface in addition to the shaft, signifies the emerging Land Attack capability in shaping the deep battle. The red lion embodies courage and strength, and symbolizes the British Distinguished Service Order awarded to Colonel Shoup for service during the battle at Betio. The gold reversed star recalls the Medal of Honor awarded to Colonel Shoup for his daring actions while commander of the 2nd Marine Division at Betio and a bitterly contested island of Tarawa Atoll.

The Crest:

From a wreath Argent and Azure (Dark blue), a wreath of laurel Or surmounted by a stylized Marine Corp emblem Argent and the laurel represents achievement and honor. The Marine Corp emblem highlights leadership and guidance reflecting the Commandant of the Marine Corps.

The Motto:

A scroll Or doubled and inscribed: "VICTORIA PER PERSERVERANTIAM VENIT" Gules. The English translation is "Through Perseverance Comes Victory"
