

COMMANDING OFFICER'S EXPECTATIONS

MISSION FIRST

As a team, project power in the form of forward presence or deliberate force. Success depends upon the following:

PROFESSIONALISM

As a Sailor and in rate, at sea and ashore – Brilliant, by the book, execution of the basics and elevation of risk decisions if unable.

KNOWLEDGE

Know your job, know your people. Train to your job, train to your people. Knowledge is the key to innovation, flexibility, and lethality.

TEAMWORK

From Blue to Gold, MSC to MILCREW, and most junior to most senior, we will only succeed together!

Take care of each other!
Honor our namesake by holding yourself and your shipmates to the following principles:

CANLEY ALWAYS

RESPECT

Always treat others with dignity. Our shared values make us stronger!

INTEGRITY

Always choose the hard right over the easy wrong.

ACCOUNTABILITY

If you make a mistake, own it, learn from it, and teach others.

PRIDE

Dedicate yourself to excellence and leave the USS JOHN L. CANLEY better than you found her – your legacy will live on!
